Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Circus. The Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Big United Shows present along with their comedy department this year numerous prominent jesters, commonly called "clowns," Along with the principal jester and associated with him are 49 kings of the clowning world. These funny chaps assist with comical antics, presenting a world of topical stunts.

When intermingling with citizens on When intermingling with citizens on the street none of them would be sus-pected of wearing the loose robes of a fool, but when they are in the ring with their makeups on they laugh and the crowd laughs with them. A jolly lot, and they have certainly helped to unload at least temporarily the cares from the minds of thousands of peo-

Clowning is an art of itself; the best clowns are born, not made. The funmaking department of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus is fully up to the high standard of its other departments; in fact, many a person will testify to the statement that the clowns with this show are worth the price of admission. Their work is appreciated, as the present strenuous life of most people causes them to relish a little pure nonsense now and then.

Everything in all departments of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' circus this year is positively new, refreshing and up to date. Among the principal acts appearing in this country for the first time are Captain Webb's double troupe of seals; the Karl Handley troupe: the Hines-Kimbail family, champion acrobats from Europe; Alpine troupe, wizards of the wire; Joe LaFeur; the celebrated Avalon company; famous butterfly Ty-Bells; Ada pany; famous butterfly Ty-Bells; Ada Bell Edwards, the Australian Amazon. strongest woman ever known; Lafter-ty, Kenyon family, Marie Meers, Rid-ing Rooneys and scores of others. Tomorrow will be circus day in Nor-wich. The parade will be upon the streets about 10 c'clock in the morning. Tickets may be obtained in advance at the Broadway pharmacy.

BREED THEATER. White Fawn's Devotion, Thrilling Indian Story. A great novelty in the motion pic-ture line is the feature at the Breed theater for today and the two days following, it being one of the first pic-tures made by the famous Pathe Freres of Paris of an American story Freres of Paris of an American story enacted by representative American actors upon American soil. It was produced under the direction of a native Indian chief and acted upon the plains, and tells of a plainsman who marries an Indian malden and eight years later receives word of an estate that has been left him near New York, and the Indian wife feels that she stands in the way of his advancement and attempts to kill herself, and the husband, discovering her, picks up a husband, discovering her, picks up a knife, and their child, seeing her father with the knife in his hands, presumes that he killed her and hurries to her Indian relatives, telling the news. Of course, the spirit of revenge is uppermost in the Indian minds and after a sensational fighting chase they capture the father and are about to administer justice when the wife rushes up, having only been in a swoon, and mutual explanations and pardons follow, and the family depart for their old home, feeling that the native life is preferable to the eastern legacy. at he killed her and hurries to her

MYSTIC

Violin Recital on Tuesday-Local Team in Second Place-Annual Cruise Begun by Captains Lamb, Forsythe and

Invitations are out for the fourth violin recital of the pupils of G. Victor Grinnell, to take place in the M. E. church on Tuesday evening. Mr. Grinnell will be assisted by W. N. Keigwin, tenor, Roger N. Daboil, 'cellist, and the Grinnell orchestra and Mrs. Clarence Brainard and Miss Helen Wilcox at the plane. Hayward's Homer Won in Tenth.

Hayward's Homer Won in Tenth.

The Mystic baseball team went to Carolina on Saturday, played ten inmings and brought home a victory. The game was a good one from the start. At the ninth inning the score was 2 and 2. When Mystic in the tenth had three men on bases, Hayward hit out a home run and sent in three other runs, making the score 6 and 2, putting Mystic in the second place in the pennant race. It was rumored around town Sunday that the White Rock team was to withdraw from the league, as they could not make it pay this season.

POETRY.

THE DISCOURAGED BROTHER.

Say, brother, what's your troublet Ain't the old world used you right?

Looks as though you'd give up hopin' 's though you'd lost the heart to fight;

Have you found out that it's useless to expect to stand a show?

If so, tell me how you've done it—tell me how you reely know.

Ain't you gettin' what you're earnin'?
Can't you find no work to do?
Have you got to thinkin' mebby God
has got it in for you?
S'pose you've got a sert of notion you'd be way up in advance
With the winners if you'd only had some other feller's chance.

Come, now, brother, let's be honest—
let's git right down to bed rock;
Don't you, when you're workin', always keep a lookin' at the clock?
Don't you just do what you have to, in a slip-shod sort of way—
Not because you like to do it, but because you want the pay?

Yes, I thought so! You've a notion you've been cheated, hain't you, now!
Got a sort of dark suspleion everything is wrong, somehow!
Think the world owes you a livin' and has tried to shirk its debt—
When it rains you want dry weather, when it's dry wou want it wet.

Have you ever stopped to wonder why
the world should ever care
Whether you are feelin happy or are clingin' to despair!
Have you ris to such importance that
it's likely anyone
Can be feelin' fealous of you or helittles what you've done?

Guess the trouble with you, brother, is you just don't care to try.
And you think the sun quits shining when a speck gits in your eye.
Mebby-things would look some brighter if you'd give up findin' fauit.
And git all your pores well opened while you tried to earn your salt.

S. E. Kiser, in the Chicago Record-Herald.

A LITTLE HERO.

He rides most daringly to bounds
Upon the rocking chair,
Or calls the cat a tiger fierce,
And stalks her to her lair.
The rug becomes a battlefield
Where spears and banners toss,
The hall a river, wide and deep.
That he must swim across.

Behind each curtain fold he sees
An Indian chieftain grim,
And bandits throng the kitchen stairs,
And seek to capture him.
And when the stars begin to shins
In night's eternal arc,
Ho toddies up to bed alone,
Quite fearless of the dark.

MUCH IN LITTLE Siam has 47 rice mills, exporting 1,000,000 tons of milled rice a year. Only $2,538 worth of American rice-milling machinery was sold there last year, though American engineers built the first of the mills. Rice production is the chief resource of Siam.

According to Consul General James T. Du Bois of Singapore a one-wheeled jinrikisha, on the monocycle principle, is being introduced among the Chinese of the Malay states. It is said to be safe and to have many advantages over the old-fashioned vehicle. Consul S. C. Beat reports from Tamsul that the estimate of the total output of the campher monopoly of the government of Formosa for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1910, will be about $.000,000 pounds of camphor and camphor oil. From Havana, Consul General Jas.

L. Rodgers reports that active efforts, under the Auspices of the Cuban Herticultural society (composed mostly of Americans), are being made to form an organization for extending the market for Cuban fruits, especially catrus.

Consul Edwin S. Cunningham reports that a company has been floated in Durban, with a capital of about $180,000, for the purpose of catching whales off the coast of Natal. This is the second company organized for this purpose. The whales will be brought ashore and, after the oil is extracted, the carcasses will be turned over to fetrtilizer and other plants.

Porto Rico is the largest purchaser among the non-contiguous territories of American goods. The shipments of merchandise to Porto Rico in the 11 months ended with May were, in round numbers, $22,000,000, and, should the June figures equal those of May, the total for the year will approximate $24,000,000, against less than $2,000,000 decade ago. Hawait ranks next to Porto Rico.

The build gardens and flower planta-tions of the department of the Van France, are all, as are all plantations devoted to the growing of early vege-tables, dependent upon artificial irri-gation. Soil and climate, favorable at they are thereshouts, must be supple-mented by an adequate system of irri-gation of some sort, or the crops fal-off considerably. A means of frequen-watering is indispensable
